THE "TREATY PORTS OF CHINA & JAPAN, AND NOTES AND QUERIES ON CHINA AND JAPAN." EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS

(From the ! Straits Times," July 274 1868. Some time ago we had occasion to remark upon the progress that Literature as represented by the Press had made and was making in the East, and our attention has again been called to the subject by the receipt of a Hongkong publication which eserves some notice and which we have anuch pleasure in introducing to the knowledge of our readers We allude to Notes and Queries on hing and Japan, published monthly by Mr Saint, the proprietor of the China Mail newspaper. This publication is well printed on good paper, and in miga and shape is very like its well-known namesake or prototype at home, and is equally a mine containing very curious and useful uformation regarding the language, literature, history, manuers and customs of the Chinese and in a less degree of the Japanese. It says a good deal for the extent and stability of the footing of Europeans in China, that such a publication as this should be established and conducted with apparently successful vigours of the and the The publication is altogether a very ineresting one, and wishing it every success, we commend it to the attention and support of our readers of the respect and the

From the Friend of India, June 4, 1868.) We acknowledge with thanks the receip of the diumbers for the current year of "Notes and Queries," a most descrying Anglo-Chinese monthly, edited by Mr N B. Dennys, whose "Treaty Ports of China and Japan" are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see that the contributors, include some of the best Chinese scholars in the East. Its interest is not confined to China, and it will be of valuable assistance to all scholars, who have directed their attention towards the subject of Buddhism and its literature, and generally to all who are interested in oriental antiquities. It deserves to be bette known in India.

This really useful volume ["Treaty Ports f [China and Japan ] is intended as as guide for travellers and residents in China and Japan, and as a book of reference for mercantile men generally. It contains an account, historical and political, of all the open ports of these countries, together with Peking, Yedo, Hongkong, and Macio. I has been carefully compiled and edited by Mr N. B. Demoys; and the elaborate matte and plans, with which the work abounds considerably enhance its value. ** * ** of We have thus given in outline some of the more prominent portions of the chafter devoted to Canton, as a specimen of the whole volume. Other chapters treating of Macao, Formosa, Ningpo, Shanghad, and the remaind r of the treaty ports, wi han only enumerate. The pages describing bilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talianan whereby they may insure a resturation.
